To the Navigators of Our Vision—Thank you!

Honoring the Dedication and Heart of Our Outgoing Leadership

To our departing board members—lhe hiwus yalxwemult (Chief Lenora Joe), hihewus ch'elkwilwet (Councillor Raquel Joe), hihewus tituya (Councillor Keith Julius), and hihewus o'shale (Councillor Rochel Jones):

True leadership is like planting trees under whose shade you may never sit. You have served as the steady hands on the paddle, navigating our economic journey with a vision that honors those who came before you while clearing the path for those yet to come. While the role of an elected leader is often a heavy and silent burden, you carried it with grace, always keeping the heartbeat of our Nation members at the center of every decision.

You haven't just managed a corporation; you have nurtured a legacy of self-determination. As you move toward your next chapters, know that your footprints remain on this land and in our successes. We wish you nothing but strength and happiness in all your future endeavors.

One Heart, One Mind: Guiding the Future of the shishalh Economy

Welcoming the New and Returning Members of the Tsain-Ko Board of Directors

A new chapter has begun for tsain-ko. We are honored to introduce the leaders who will guide our economic future: hiwus Warren Paul, hihewus Benny Pierre, hihewus Jamel Paul, and hihewus Salina August. We are also pleased to welcome back hihewus Philip Paul, whose experience provides the vital bridge between our past successes and our future goals.

In our culture, we know that a canoe only moves swift and straight when the paddlers work as one heart and one mind. We have full confidence in this board's ability to navigate the waters ahead with integrity and dedication to the shishalh people.

May your term be filled with wisdom, collaboration, and great achievement for our Nation.

From the Office to the Boardroom: Celebrating Selina August

It is with a mix of bittersweet emotion and immense pride that we share some news regarding one of our own. Selina August is transitioning from her role as General Manager to take her seat as a member of the tsain-ko Board of Directors.

While we will deeply miss her daily presence, her infectious energy, and her leadership in the office, we are thrilled that her journey is continuing with us in this new capacity. Selina has been a cornerstone of our operations, and her firsthand knowledge of our day-to-day work will be an invaluable asset to the Board's vision.

Ensuring Continuity: A Smooth Transition for tsain-ko Properties

To our partners and tenants: please join us in congratulating Selina on this well-deserved appointment. For all inquiries regarding tsain-ko Properties, please reach out to Tracey Kelly, who will be ensuring our high standards of service continue without interruption.

Selina, we are so proud of you. We aren't saying goodbye; we're just excited to see you lead from a different seat at the table.
